Knock-Out Drops

I am a saloon-keeper, and used to think that rock and rye, or whiskey and quinine were proper remedies for coughs and colds. Most of the time I was right, but sometimes we were of the same opinion. Now I know something at least a thousand times better. It is Acker's English Remedy for Coughs and Colds. A bottle will keep you from coughing and found out that rock and rye was no good. I got worse and was very low. My doctor telegraphed the facts to his brothers at Durango, North Carolina, and they replied, asking that he be sent to them at once.

This morning Carl Hoffman, at whose house he was staying, wired the brothers of his death, and the body will be held on Saturday at Magdalena, July 5, to be followed by a full military funeral.

A few days ago, when his condition was very low, Mayor Marcos telegraphed the facts to his brothers at Durango, North Carolina, and they wired, asking that he be sent to them at once.

The deceased was about 30 years of age, and came native from Chicago about two years ago. He had a room at Mrs. Carl Hoffman's, and they gave the sick man every care and attention.

JUDGMENT RECOVERED.

Claims for Indian Depredations have been Allowed by Court of Claims.

It will be of interest to all parties in this case to learn that judgment has been rendered in the court of claims at Washington by reason of depredations committed in the past by the different tribes or bands of Indians in this section, to know that Richard B. Knight has recovered judgment for the amount of damages claimed by him, being in the sum of $4,000. Attorney Frank J. Wright, of this city, represented him here and worked faithfully all alone to secure the other claims of his clients. All of Mr. Knight's friends will congratulate him on recovering the amount of his losses.

Attorney Alvin N. White has received notification from Washington that judgment will be early rendered in the case of his client, John A. Walford, vs. the Apache Indians. A great many thousands of dollars are asked for damages sustained by different persons in this section, and it now looks as if the claims are going to be paid off during this and the early part of next year.
